Membership:

Master Gardeners of Western Wayne County (MGWWC) is a non-profit Michigan State University Extension (MSUE) associated volunteer organization dedicated to educating our local communities about gardening and horticulture using research-based information. We are here to come together to improve our Community, grow as individuals, learn from each other and have lots of FUN in the process. MGWWC welcomes everyone who shares a passion for gardening and horticulture to join and participate in MGWWC activities.

Voting Members:

Members who have successfully completed the Michigan Master Gardener course, the individual volunteer requirement and who have received certification through the Michigan Master Gardener Program are eligible for membership with voting privileges upon payment of annual dues. To remain eligible for membership the Master Gardener must annually complete the current state recertification requirements.
